Saturday's gala performance by England at the Sydney Cricket Ground marks more than the 10th anniversary of Australian soccer: it also marks our coming of age.

The two countries have developed a unique rivalry in many other sports: in cricket, rugby, yachting, athletics, polo, hockey and others their clashes represent the highlights of the sporting calendar.

Now, at long last, it's soccer's turn.

Of course, we have had various English representative teams here over the years.

In 1925 an FA team toured Australia, playing 25 matches — and winning all 25, some of them by double scores.

Then, in 1937, an English amateur team came here, led by the brilliant Bernard Joy and still won eight of their 10 tour games.

In 1951 yet another FA side was welcomed in Australia.

They began the tour with modest wins — until some lunatics in Tasmania annoyed them by sprinkling broken glass on a playing field and holding anti-English demonstrations.

This did it. Tasmania were promptly beaten 11-0 and 17-0 within a period of three days and then, on June 30, in Sydney, Australia suffered a fantastic 17-0 beating.

As a matter of interest: the crowd that day was 14,146 at the Cricket Ground...

One of the players of that team was Frank Broome, later to settle in Sydney and have a brief coaching career here.

Finally, in 1971, another FA side arrived, with a pretty useful lot of players: Mick Mills, Chris Garland, Ken Wagstaffe — and today's England stopper, Dave Watson among them.

Like the 1951 team — which won all 20 of their games — the 1971 side also kept a clean sheet, winning all nine games.

But this is the first time ever that the Football Association has sent a team which officially goes under the name "England."

QUEENS PARK (2nd div.) saw Lethbridge Rangers dominate the first half in their first grade match. Following a stern talking to at halftime the Park came out to take control, gradually wearing down their opponents. Lethbridge opened the scoring following a through ball from midfield to Eric Hedges who raced past the defence and chipped the ball over the 'keeper. The second goal came from a very well taken freekick for Martin Steele to slam home. The second half was virtually all Queens Park. Their first goal was scored following a good run and shot by Billy Mitchell which was deflected to a defender who attempted a back-pass. This was brilliantly intercepted by John Cobourne who slotted the ball into the net from an acute angle. Two chances were missed before their efforts were rewarded in the 88th minute when T. Sweeney knocked the ball over the centre half to Mick Cronshaw who gained control and lobbed the ball over the head of the advancing goalkeeper into the net.*

RIVERSTONE (3rd div.) were host to Hurstville Zagreb, a side weakened by many injuries, Riverstone were on top and despite missing many scoring chances the home side finished 1-0 winners. The only goal of the match was scored during the first half, netted by Michael Milanovic. Hurstville Zagreb came very close to equalising in the last few minutes but the courage of the Riverstone goalie in blocking shots saved the match for the home side.*

□ □ □

LIVERPOOL RANGERS (6th div.) in their first grade match against Liverpool City, started off at a very fast pace and neither side was prepared to give anything away. The second half started off much the same way with both teams trying hard for a goal. In the 60th minute City's John Marinicic was brought down in the area for a penalty which was converted by Brian McGovern. Down 1-0, Rangers began to pressure the City defence and five minutes later a freekick taken by Steven Horne found Mark Wetten in the clear, who rammed home a beautiful goal which levelled the score. The second grade match went to City 2-1. Kevin Connors scored the first goal midway through the first half with Rangers equalising just before halftime after a long throw-in. The winning goal came in the 60th minute when Doug Duran converted a penalty. Outstanding players for City were Darren McGuffog and Doug Duran.*

□ □ □

KINGSFORD (3rd div.) went south to Port Hacking and came back with the maximum points winning 2-0 in first grade. The first goal scored in the first half came from an almost impossible angle when Benny Benyamen shot the ball from left, 18 metres out, to hit the upright and into the net. The second half goal was scored by Glen Walker when he took the ball, finishing alone with only the goalkeeper to beat. In addition to recent signings, Nick Constantino, ex-Sydney Olympic and Gary Rookes, ex-Pan Hellenic, Kingsford have signed another two new players. Both are from Sydney Olympic, Andy Mandrides a goalkeeper and utility player and Jim Louizos, sweeper. Both gave a very impressive performance against Port Hacking.*

□ □ □

FAIRFIELD WEST (5th div.) came out winners in both grades against Macquarie University. Reserve grade won 3-2, mainly due to goalkeeper, Greg Humphries who saved a penalty. Scorers for West were D. Stronoch, F. Leggett and S. Froud. First grade took the points with a score of 1-0. The first half proved very even but after the break Wests took over and dominated with a good team effort. The West attack forced a penalty in the 70th minute which was converted by Paul Watchman. Macquarie came close to equalising when a shot from a break-away move was brilliantly saved by Wests 'keeper D. Southgate. Wests President, Alex Johnston said he was very pleased with both teams and the table positions.*

□ □ □

BLACKTOWN WANDERERS (6th div.) played away to Bankstown Sports last weekend. In the first grade match Wanderers opened the scoring in the 10th minute with a goal by Ray Garney with Sports equalising five minutes later. Wanderers went ahead through Ray Stephenson and another goal from Carlos Gierke made it 1-3 at the break. At the start of the second period Carlos was replaced by Peter Como, ex West Holroyd making his debut for the club with an immediate goal. 4-1. Midway through the half Ray Garney added another two goals. 6-1. The final goal of the match was scored by Peter Como with seven minutes to go for a final score of 2-7. Blacktown would like to thank Bankstown Sports for their sportsman-like play and attitude.*

□ □ □

WEST HOLROYD (4th div.) hosted Ryde District and sent the visitors home with a good 6-1 win under their belts. The halftime score was 1-1 and in the second half West Holroyd collapsed and let the Ryde side easily penetrate the defense to add five more goals, one being a penalty. Ryde District scorers were Wayne Marchin (2), Peter Kimmorley (2), Terry Long and Rober Reighton. The man of the match for the third week running was fullback Graham Friend.*

□ □ □

WEST ST.GEORGE (5th div.) played at home to Winston Hills. First grade was a hard, fair match with Winston Hills possibly having the edge on chances but unable to make use of them. St.George gave a much improved team effort on last week's and though unable to score, held the Hills attack at bay. Reserve grade went deservedly to West St.George with goals by Ray Cush and Russell Beckett (2) Winston Hills scored from a penalty taken by Peter Rush though the team gave a lethargic effort showing a strong element of over-confidence.*

MILAN HELD

The touring AC Milan, no doubt deeply upset about the club's relegation back home, continue to put on some strange performances.

Midweek they beat a strong Victoria 2-0, with a fine display, then went to Brisbane and played a 2-2 draw with a hastily assembled State side.

In Brisbane they raced to a 2-0 lead before Hermiston and Millman snatched two goals in the second half to force a draw in front of only 5,200 spectators.

A bitter blow to Inter Monaro's hopes of bolstering their first team came when former captain ALAN BOURKE announced he wouldn't play again for the club this year. Alan, who has been coaching the second grade side, said he was unhappy playing second grade after nine years occupying a regular first team spot at Sutherland, Canberra City and Monaro.

ENGLAND'S STOCK IS RISING AGAIN

After some years of relative obscurity, English soccer is once again rising to the top.

Some lean years followed England's 1966 World Cup win at Wembley; they failed to qualify for the 1974 and 1978 World Cup finals.

In fact, at full international level, that was England's first and so far only outstanding success.

But there are strong signs that England's fortune is rising again.

Manager Ron Greenwood, who created in West Ham one of the most stylish British soccer teams since the war, has completely abandoned the defensive, dour tactics of his predecessor, Don Revie.

Where Revie went for safety and produced tedium, Greenwood opts for skill and brings about excitement.

Under his managership even the most hardened professionals are rediscovering the simple joy of soccer: Keegan, Wilkins, Woodcock, Brooking, Hoddle, Mariner and others are now household names all over Europe.

Some two weeks after their Sydney match, England will begin their quest for the European crown in Italy.

Although the majority of players called up for that tournament are now in training camp back in England, some of those at present in Australia may yet join them: Hoddle, Devonshire, Parkes and Ward could go from Sydney to Rome.

Whether England will win the European Championship will be decided soon: they are starting as co-favorites with West Germany, Italy and possibly Holland.

But Greenwood's main target is the World Cup of 1982. It is for that event that he is shaping and blending his team.

Let's wish them the very best of luck in their quest for regaining their former glory.

The England party now in Australia is:

GLENN HODDLE (Tottenham Hotspurs), 23.

Signed with the club as an apprentice straight from school and made his first team debut against Stoke in February, 1976. Made his England debut against Bulgaria last year, and scored one of the two goals. England team manager, Ron Greenwood, describes Hoddle as 'a player with excellent ball control and a player of the future.'

DAVID ARMSTRONG (Middlesbrough), 25.

A specialist left-sided midfield player with more than 300 first team appearances with 'Boro, he helped the club into the first division under the astute managerialship of Jackie Charlton. Holder of four Under-23 caps before fading from the representative arena until Ron Greenwood was appointed England manager.

TREVOR CHERRY (Leeds United), 32.

Captain of Leeds United, England international defender or midfield player with 20 full caps. Trevor started his career with Huddersfield. Soon he fitted into the pattern of things and eventually succeeded Billy Bremner as team captain. A determined approach coupled with excellent distribution makes Trevor a key member of both Leeds and England whether at fullback or in the midfield.

KEVIN REEVES (Manchester City), 22.

This striker switched from Norwich City during the just completed season for $4 million, signed by the colorful and controversial City manager Malcolm Allison. As a youngster in Hampshire, Kevin dreamt of wearing the famous red and white stripes of Southampton. The England 'B' team star would spend his Saturday afternoons cheering the Saints on from the terraces at The Dell. Reeves is on his second visit to Australia after coming out here last year with Norwich City under manager John Bond. He began his football career with Bournemouth before hitting the 'big time' with the Canaries in the first division and then switching to Manchester City.

ALAN SUNDERLAND (Arsenal) 25.

Alan was selected in the England squad for the first time this year. At club level he forms a two-prong 'strike force' with Frank Stapleton but this exciting pair were well blotted out by West Ham's defence in this year's FA Cup final. A former midfield player with Wolves, Alan has one Under-21 and one Under-23 cap. Has played in three FA Cup finals and scored a last minute winner at Wembley last year against Manchester United. He joined the Gunners from Wolves in November, 1977 for $400,000.

TERRY BUTCHER (Ipswich Town), 21.

Has had a rapid rise to the ranks of the England squad. It was in the middle of the defence that Terry hit the headlines last season — after making his Ipswich debut away to Everton. He was 19 and played in only 27 more games before his selection for the England Under-21 side in a friendly against Sweden 12 months ago. Since then, the giant defender has nursed an ambition to gain a regular spot in the England team. He played a big part in Ipswich's revival in the second half of the competition in helping the club finish third behind Liverpool and Manchester United.

PAUL MARINER (Ipswich Town), 25.

The club's most expensive player, costing $440,000 when he was bought from lowly Plymouth Argyle in October 1976. The Bolton-born striker made 135 appearances with Plymouth before transferring to Ipswich where he notched up 98 appearances, and scoring 34 goals before the start of last season. Made his England debut against Luxemburg in 1977 and has five full caps to his credit. Won an FA Cup winners medal in the 1977-78 season.

BRIAN TALBOT (Arsenal), 25.

This former Ipswich Town player created football history by playing in three consecutive FA Cup finals, winning the first two but losing earlier this month, the third one. Brian has five full caps and one Under-21 cap to his credit and has collected two winning FA Cup medals with Ipswich and Arsenal. Signed by Arsenal for a reputed $900,000 two seasons ago, he forms a great midfield partnership with Trevor Cherry from Leeds United.

PHIL PARKES (West Ham United), 29.

The giant West Ham custodian has been described as the most expensive 'keeper in the world. He was one of two West Ham players in the squad that won this year's FA Cup final, beating the more fancied Arsenal 1-0. Parkes began his football career with Walsall before a long and illustrious career with Queens Park Rangers collecting one full cap, six Under-23 caps and one Under-21 cap for England. He transferred from Queens Park Rangers 14 months ago for $1,130,000. Has just signed a new five-year contract with the Hammers which expires when he's about 35.

BRIAN GREENHOFF (Leeds United), 26.

Former long serving stalwart with Manchester United making more than 200 first team appearances before his transfer to Leeds early last season. Along with his brother Jimmy carved a niche in football history by appearing in the same United side in a winning FA Cup team. Made his full England debut against Wales in 1976. He has 17 caps to his credit.

ALAN DEVONSHIRE (West Ham United), 24.

It was his break down the left side of the pitch that led to West Ham's winning goal against Arsenal in this year's FA Cup final. Playing with his first league club, Alan has been the success story of the year. Has no previous international caps, but won his first England B cap recently. Only 23, Alan's performance with the Hammers got him the 'nod' to join the English touring party. England manager Ron Greenwood describes Alan as one of the outstanding players to emerge during the season.

JOE CORRIGAN (Manchester City), 31.

Long serving member of the club who made his full England debut against Italy in 1976 as a second half replacement. Gained further caps against Brazil and Wales last year. He is making his second trip to Australia after touring here in 1970 with Manchester City. At 6ft 4½ins., Corrigan is one of the tallest 'keepers in England and before the start of the season had made 333 first team appearances and was ever present in the 1978-79 season.

PETER WARD (Brighton), 24.

A prolific scorer with Brighton, getting 62 goals in 125 matches before the start of last season. Set a club scoring record in 1976-77 with 32 goals in Division 3. Regarded as one of England's bright hopes of the future. No England caps yet to his credit.

FRANK LAMPARD (West Ham Utd.), 29.

Fullback, one of West Ham United's greatest club servants with more than 450 club games to his credit. It could be said that he and another long serving defender, Billy Bonds, are the pillars of the West Ham side. Lampard has never played for England and was brought into the squad as a last minute replacement for Alan Kennedy. Although essentially a defender Lampard wants to go forward and this paid handsome dividends a few weeks ago when his headed goal won the FA Cup semifinal for West Ham at Everton's expense.

BRYAN ROBSON (West Bromwich Albion), 23.

One of the most sought-after midfielders in England, Robson is tipped to be the next million pound transfer buy: Manchester United are interested in getting him. Hails from Chester-le-Street, a County Durham mining town in an area renowned for producing great players.

RUSSELL OSMAN (Ipswich Town), 21.

Earned this England trip after a great season with the successful Ipswich Town team. Plays in the centre of the defence and has sometimes kept international Kevin Beattie out of the Ipswich side. Born at Repton and has played for only one club, Ipswich.

RON GREENWOOD — Coach.

Born at Burnley, Lancashire, moved to London when he was a boy and he eventually joined Chelsea as a wing-half. Returning from war-time service with the R.A.F., Bradford Park Avenue paid 3,000 pounds — then a record for the club — for his transfer in December, 1945. Returned to London when Brentford signed him in March, 1949, and it was with this club that he really made his reputation as a strong centrehalf, intelligent footballer, and an ideal captain.

In all he made over 300 Football League appearances.

He was appointed Assistant Manager at Arsenal in November 1958 and took over as Manager of West Ham United in April 1961 — only the fourth manager in the club's history.

Under Greenwood's direction West Ham became one of the most stylish teams in England with successes in the European Cups.

He was appointed temporary England team manager for the home friendly international match against Switzerland in September, 1977 and the World Cup qualifying matches against Luxemburg and Italy. He was offered the position of permanent Manager to prepare the England team and the supporting teams for the next two years after the Italy match.

Greenwood is one of the most respected coaches in the world and a regular lecturer for FIFA at seminars and courses.

Seven Sydney Socceroos

Rudi Gutendorf will announce his Australian team only perhaps a day or two before Saturday's clash.

However, he makes no secrets of his preferences.

Greg Woodhouse (Leichhardt) is likely to be in goal despite playing in a struggling team and it's difficult to go past this brilliant youngster.

He is undoubtedly the most talented and capable Australian goalie since Ron Lord.

Steve Perry (Brisbane City) could get the nod at right fullback; Gutendorf likes to use this nuggety little fellow for tactical purposes.

Marconi's recently signed Jim Muir and his club-mate, Ivo Prskalo could be the two central defenders.

Muir, unwanted only a few weeks ago by either Adelaide City or some Sydney clubs, fits in perfectly with Gutendorf's overall strategies as an enterprising freeback.

Jim Tansey, this polished, thoughtful defender, could play at the left flank; he rarely has a poor performance.

Jimmy Rooney's place in midfield is beyond dispute; the diminutive Scot, now at a veteran stage, is still an indispensable cog in the Socceroo wheel.

If Tony Henderson is fit, he should be one of his midfield partners with Ken Boden of Sydney City the third of the partnership.

All three are creative and mobile with Boden also a dangerous goal-getter.

Unless he has a last minute change of mind, Gutendorf is likely to play with three strikers: Peter Sharne and Mark Jankovics of Marconi, Gary Cole of Heidelberg.

They have explosive speed and a fair measure of power on their side — though perhaps not sufficient skill against a team like England.

If Gutendorf departs from his fairly settled team ideas, the likeliest to get a run are Christopoulos or Bertogna in defence, Selemidis in midfield, Krncevic in attack.

LEICHHARDT 2(2)
CANBERRA 1(0)

Goals: 1-0 Harding (9m), 2-0 Harding (pen.38m), 2-1 Giampaolo (47m).

LEICHHARDT: Woodhouse 3, Pullen 3, McGinn 3, Harding 4, Wilson 4, Dempsey 3, Butler 4, McAusland 4, Pirie (Drews 34m, 3), Coyne 3 (Skellern 72m), O'Connor 4. Coach: W. Wallace.

CANBERRA: Hoszowski 3, Moulis 3 (Williams 46m), Milovanovic 3, R. O'Shea 3, Byrne 2, Farrell 2, J. O'Shea 3, McLaren 3, Cole 2, Valeri 4, Giampaolo 2. Coach: V. Fernandez.

Referee: P. Rampley (NSW; crowd: 2,789; cautions: Milovanovic, R. O'Shea, Coyne; sent off: Milovanovic.

Canberra played like a team without spirit and despite a more polished line up they virtually surrendered the game to Leichhardt in the first 15 minutes.

There was none of the dash and skill they delivered on two previous trips to Sydney.

Instead there was hesitant play, miscued passes and an almost total lack of running off the ball.

Leichhardt for their part tackled furiously, kept to their men like glue and were willing to run for each other.

After only nine minutes this paid off when a cross from the right was flicked on by Butler and Harding — standing alone in the six metre box — scored effortlessly.

Canberra launched a couple of promising raids through McLaren and Valeri but the heart of the Canberra team was not there.

Surprisingly Giampaolo was played on the left wing and as a result was isolated from the area where he has the greatest influence on the game.

Mike Milovanovic gradually became more and more flustered as the game wore on, desperately trying to keep his defence together.

But the foul that eventually sent him off was more a clumsy charge than a vicious hack.

Leichhardt's second goal which eventually proved the winner had fans and officials of both teams looking on in stunned silence.

Terry Butler, playing back to his best form, dashed into the penalty area but the ball looked certain to beat him over the goal line. Hoszowski, not taking any chances, rushed out and gathered the ball from Butler's feet, at which the tiny winger naturally toppled over the 'keeper.

Much to everyone's amazement referee Peter Rampley adjudged Hoszowski to have fouled Butler and awarded a penalty which Harding put away.

In the second period Leichhardt continued to dominate despite a goal by Giampaolo who flicked in a long throw from Duncan Cole.

BLACKTOWN 3(0)
FOOTSCRAY 0

Goals: 1-0 Hunter (49m), 2-0 Hunter (66m), 3-0 O'Reilly (o.g., 82m).

BLACKTOWN CITY: Freeman 3, Harris 4, Cuk 4, Pointer 4, Turnbull 3, Selfridge 5, O'Donnell 4, Hormazabal 4, Hunter 5, Wilkinson 4, Izatt 4 (Fisher 77m). Coach: M. Jones.

FOOTSCRAY: Boland 3, Hazabent 3, O'Reilly 3, Ollerton 3, Petrov 3, Jovanovic 3, Vasic 3, Ilioski 3,(Belic 89m), Picioane 4, (Simic 57m), Kondarios 3, Lujic 4. Coach: R. Ilie.

Referee: H. Witschge (NSW); crowd: 3,200; cautions: Ollerton, Hazabent, Izatt.

This was a remarkable match the result of which surely many people found hard to believe.

Footscray had the better of the first half but were clearly blitzed into oblivion after the interval.

Blacktown not only scored three goals, but missed at least another three through poor finishing.

Boland saved well a couple of times, Fisher and then Wilkinson wasted chances in front of the goal.

The rival coaches played an important part in the final outcome of the match.

Rocco Ilie surprisingly took Picioane, the best man, off the field, obviously as a punishment for a bad backpass which brought about Blacktown's first goal.

Mick Jones, during the interval, managed to shake up his own men who then went out with a new purpose.

Footscray played some wonderful stuff in in the first half with some intelligent wall-passes, enjoying long periods of possession.

Ollerton was outstanding as a central defender at that stage: not only was he effective in defence but also spread some colossal long-range passes to his front runners.

Just after halftime that poor backpass by Picioane was swept home by Hunter.

For the next 20 minutes Blacktown swung the ball around confidently, with the midfielders O'Donnell, Selvage and Hormazabal taking complete charge.

Harris made a few good overlapping runs before Izatt picked up a ball deep in his own half, attacked the defence and, when unchallenged, drew the keeper and slipped the ball to Hunter to slot it away.

The last goal was freakish: Ollerton's clearance hit O'Reilly and the ball rebounded into Boland's net.

Blacktown's form is certainly a boost to their supporters while Footscray lost application and character after going one goal down.

A few more displays like these and Blacktown's "Houdini Act" will be complete.

WEST ADELAIDE 1(1)

Goal: Kosmina (41m).

WEST ADELAIDE: Crook 4, Marisic 4, Bozanic 4, Carruthers 4, Topaz 4, McKie 4, Norris 4, Manecas 4 (Key 88m), Kosmina 4, Honeyman 3. McGregor 5. Coach: G. Chaldi.

ST.GEORGE: Fraser 4, Hadley 4, Utjesenovic 4, McIntosh 4, Terry 3, Gnavi 4, Stone 3, Cotton 3, Campbell 4, Griffiths 3, Duarte 3 (Beggs 59m). Coach: R. Blanco.

Referee: G. Neale (SA.); crowd: 3,470; cautions: Topaz, Manecas, Cotton, McIntosh.

A stunning header from John Kosmina gave Westad the points in this fiery clash which had distinct relegation overtones.

It was an important goal for Westad and for Kosmina who was fighting to keep his place in the team following a string of unproductive performances.

Westad manager Gerry Chaldi made several positional changes to the side which had lost to Adelaide City, switching Norris to midfield and with the return of wing striker Manecas the most notable.

Norris joined Ian McGregor and Eric Carruthers in the middle of the park but his major role was to mark Saints midfielder Peter Stone.

Norris performed his task brilliantly, allowing McGregor and Carruthers to dominate proceedings in the centre.

Manecas proved far more effective and threatening on the wing than he had in previous weeks in the middle.

The desperate Saints started in fine style and put Westad under early pressure with some excellent passing.

But this dominance lasted for only 10 minutes before Westad took control to earn two scoring chances apiece from Carruthers and Kosmina.

Westad then converted their superiority into a goal as Kosmina sent home his perfect header from a lob at the edge of the box by Topaz.

McGregor almost got an insurance goal early in the second half as he sent a 25-metre drive against the right post.

West continued to dictate terms until some 17 minutes from the end when Rudi Gnavi missed the sitter to end all sitters as he flashed the ball wide of an empty goal after Peter Beggs had lured Crook out of position with a cross.

The Saints engineered one last chance to salvage a point when veteran Doug Utjesenovic struck a superb freekick from the edge of the penalty box but Crook made a spectacular fingertip save.

Westad can now breathe a bit easier but St.George's woes have deepened further.

Referee: S. Mellings Vic.); crowd: 3,727; caution: Mason.

Soccer supporters looking for something completely different should try a Heidelberg home game once in a while.

Because the 90 minutes were a procession of Heidelberg chances which produced a disallowed goal, a shot against the post and several narrow misses apart from the four goals which won the game.

The avalanche stemmed from the midfield dominance held by Jimmy Rooney and partners Jim Campbell and Theo Selemidis who overshadowed their counterparts to continually carve out openings for the front running trio.

Campbell put the home side in the lead on the half hour mark hammering home the rebound after Andy Bozikas had his initial shot blocked by Phil Dando.

Just on halftime the same two players were involved in the second goal. This time Campbell's shot rattled the crossbar and Bozikas was on hand to knock in the loose ball for an easy goal.

Then in the 72nd minute when a Bozikas shot came off the upright he was caught off balance and could not poke the ball into the unguarded net.

Nevertheless Heidelberg put the match beyond doubt a minute later when a move involving Paton and Campbell left Bozikas the simple task of squaring the ball for Cole in the middle of the area and the latter made no mistake for his 16th goal of the season.

And the Australian goaleador added his second for the match within minutes intercepting a bad backpass by Arno Bertogna after the defender had been put under pressure by Paton.

Now for a classic finish we hand you over to Mr. Norris who said as the teams were walking off the park: "A big hand for both teams ladies and gentlemen, especially Newcastle United who put up a good performance."

We must have been watching a different match...

SYDNEY CITY 2(0)
ADELAIDE CITY 1(1)

Goals: 0-1 J. Nyskohus (pen., 17m), 1-1 Trenter (82m), 2-1 Watson (85m).

SYDNEY CITY: Clarke (Pezzano 4, 10m), Mullen 4 (Souness 76m), Thomson 5, O'Connor 5, Bruce 4, Stevenson 4, Watson 4, Barnes 3, Spanos 3, Boden 3, Trenter 3. Coach: E. Thomson.

ADELAIDE CITY: Marshall 5, Dods 4, Russell 4, Jones 5, B. Nyskohus 3, Perin 3, Marocchi 3 (Mitchell 84m), Melta 3, Fashanu 2, Barnes 2, J. Nyskohus 3. Coach: R. Rasic.

Referee: T. Davies (NSW); crowd: 2,340; cautions: Dods, Trenter.

A relentless second half pressure by Sydney City earned its reward at the end of a physical, bad tempered game in which the beauty of soccer was well concealed.

Almost from the start some fierce duels developed: Jones v Trenter, Fashanu v O'Connor and the bitterest of all, Dods v Barnes, with Tim Davies needing all his good humor and patience not to resort to the ultimate weapon.

In the first half Adcity played a fairly open game and went ahead when John Nyskohus converted a penalty after Barnes had handled.

Fashanu, seemingly fatigued after his Saturday trip from China, moved well but had his timing all astray and failed to fulfil the Adelaide hopes of becoming an instant goal-getter.

Sydney had the better chances in the half: in the 15th minute Spanos hit the post and in the 30th only luck saved Adcity again, after a mighty scramble.

After the interval, Adcity strangely changed tactics: instead of keeping the ball on the ground, they kept sending hopeless long and high balls forward trying to find the head of Fashanu.

Sydney began to find its old rhythm and were also allowed to take over the midfield, almost unchallenged.

The goals simply had to come and, late as they were, they came, eventually beating the brilliant Marshall.

In the 82nd minute a Barnes pass with a header put Trenter through and the tall, bustling striker ever so delicately lobbed the advancing 'keeper.

Three minutes later a sharp Spanos shot was punched clear by Marshall straight into the path of Watson whose low volley from some 25 metres bulged the net.

Sydney City showed that, when they have to, they can not only play but fight, too: the win was a result of their dogged perseverence rather than traditionally free-flowing style.

Adcity disappointed. Gone is their witty, elegant soccer of 1977 and they have become a utilitarian team composed of highly-talented individuals not giving anything near their best.

STH.MELBOURNE 3(1)
MARCONI 1(1)

Goals: 0-1 Byrne (10m), 1-1 Evans (41m), 2-1 Evans (49m), 3-1 Campbell (61m).

SOUTH MELBOURNE: Laumets 5, P. Bannon 5, Davidson 5, Xanthopoulos 5, Rogers 5, Christopoulos 5, Lutton 5, Evans 5, Cummings 5, Buljevic 5, Campbell 5 (Kakantonis 85m) Coach: J. Margaritis.

MARCONI: Maher 5, Degney 5, Russell 5, Henderson 5, Prskalo 5, Muir 5, Byrne 5, Lindsay 5, Vieri 5, (Mariani 5, 45m), Jankovic 5, Krncevic 5. Coach: L. Scheinflug.

Referee: P. Brennan (Vic.); crowd: 8,000.

The Middle Park Stadium had the privilege of holding the grandest game of soccer since the founding of the Philips League: soccer at its grandest was seen by this enthusiastic and appreciative crowd.

There was a tingling excitement for the fans who like their soccer with lots of fire — and yet no cautions were necessary.

Marconi were moving sweetly into attack and South were guarding their goal well until the 10 minute mark.

Krncevic shot hard for Laumets to spill his save and Byrne, ever alert, raced in to score.

South were quick to gain midfield supremacy with Xanthopoulos, Rogers, Christopoulos and Lutton breaking up any Marconi moves.

A Buljevic header and a Rogers drive went past at 14 minutes and a Christopoulos attempt was foiled by Degney.

A well directed header from Evans scored but was disallowed by referee Brennan for a previous infringement at 21 minutes.

The consistent pressure paid off at 41 minutes when Alun Evans equalised with a great header and Cummings showed some of his old form with a stinging drive on half-time.

South carried the attack to Marconi, and the second half was only four minutes old before Cummings put through for Buljevic to flick on and Evans headed home once more.

Marconi opened their game up, and looked dangerous with Mariani on for Vieri and Krncevic, Jankovics and Byrne moving nicely.

However, that South backline had all the answers.

That touch of magic which lifts any game came when Georgie Campbell changed the flight of the ball deftly in mid-air and hammered South's third goal all in the one movement.

South did not ease up, and much to the credit of Marconi they were still working as hard as ever.

Both Maher and Laumets were at their best in stemming further goals and Prskalo went up front trying to reduce the leeway, only to find his own goal in danger when Maher had to stretch an Evans drive round the post.

Eddie Thomson, Sydney City: "I felt that we had a chance of coming back in the second half. I was delighted with the midfield generalship of Stevenson and Watson."

★ ★ ★

Rale Rasic, Adelaide City: "We'll never play in Sydney again with a Sydney referee. It was diabolical."

Blacktown City have now collected 7 points from their last 4 games — St.George have collected one from their last 9...

★ ★ ★

Willie Wallace, Leichhardt: "Naturally, I'm very pleased with the win. It wasn't a great performance but the team showed character. It also provides us with a bit of breathing space and should take some of the pressure off the lads. Canberra looked the best side we have played this year."

★ ★ ★

Vic Fernandez, Canberra: "We were demoralised early by their first goal and it affected the boys too much. We need an experienced head in midfield who can keep the team going despite the hardships. Leichhardt have so many experienced players that there was no way they would let us back into the game after the early goal."

★ ★ ★

Westad manager Gerry Chaldi: "This was the win we badly needed. We won because several of our players who had been off form finally hit their straps."

PHILIPS SOCCER LEAGUE '80

Scramble in front of the Sydney City goal last Sunday.

Short but vital round

Sunday's mini-round will have enormous significance for some of the struggling teams.

Adelaide City, unable to string two wins together in a row, hope to have Justin Fashanu in peak fitness against Blacktown.

Somehow, Adcity's displays are not convincing at all while Blacktown keep stunning all their critics, including us.

They have blended into a marvellous fighting unit and even in Adelaide, they are not within a chance.

Still, it would be too daring to tip anything but a home win — say 2-1 for Adcity.

Footscray, shock losers last week, will be a different proposition at home against Leichhardt.

With John Coyne now in their ranks, Leichhardt should really start showing more class than hitherto and perhaps a draw is not beyond them.

We tip 1-1.

Finally, Canberra, torn apart by internal strife, resignations transfer requests and threats of sackings, can't be too sure of the points against Brisbane City who badly need some points.

Now under the coaching of George Potter, the Queenslanders are likely to hope for a neutralisation of the deadly Canberra front runners and snatch a point.

Unless Canberra's schism continues, we feel they should scrape home.

Our tip: 3-1 for Canberra.

Lowy new PSL Boss?

Saturday's PSL meeting in Sydney could be a stormy one.

Several club executives are certain to take issue with their management committee over the recent reprimand about press statements.

The uneasy relationship between the PSL and ASF is also likely to get an airing.

The chairmanship of Max Talbot could be challenged.

Max Talbot recently resigned from Canberra and has rejoined Newcastle as a director.

There is growing feeling that the PSL shouldn't have two of its three executives from the same club (Paul Trisley being the other).

It seems that Sydney City president Frank Lowy will be nominated to replace Max Talbot and, at a rough count, he has the numbers to succeed.

The meeting will also discuss several problems connected with the running of the PSL.

We want to give only one piece of advice: the PSL should seriously examine our earlier proposal of reversing the season and playing the championship in the months rugby league and Aussie rules are dormant.

— A.D.

Perkins out

The president of Canberra City, Charles Perkins, resigned from his position last Thursday.

In his letter of resignation Perkins cited "work pressure" as the pertinent reason.

Charles Perkins is currently Deputy Secretary of the Department of Aboriginal Affairs.

However, in local circles it is well known that Perkins, unhappy with home results and general play, would like to see Victor Fernandez replaced as coach.

The board of directors is split over the Perkins resignation and team results within the next couple of weeks should determine the fate of coach Victor Fernandez.

Charles Perkins was in his second term of the presidency of Canberra City.

A man of his influence and outspoken honesty will be hard to replace.

A senior vice president, Theo Moulis has been appointed president until the next annual general meeting in October.

Adelaide's Justin Fashanu's unhappy landing in Australia.

FIRST DIVISION

— By Charles Spiteri —

Two goals by their top striker Adrian Pickup kept Bathurst at the top of the table with a slender lead over Blacktown City who have stretched their unbeaten record to 10 games.

It was no easy going for the leaders who had to fight all the way to beat the ever improving Yugal under the coaching of Ilja Takac.

Blacktown City with at least four players who had some experience in the Philips League beat their neighbours rather convincingly and have yet to lose a match. Alan Fisher scored a hat-trick.

With maximum points from their two matches, Revesby have climbed near the top with equal points with University who had a bye this weekend.

In their first encounter on Saturday, Revesby beat the fancied St.George with two goals each from Gary Mitford and Ian McGovern. They doubled up on Sunday to beat Warringah with the odd goal in five, scoring their winning goal right on the final whistle.

While they went down on Saturday, St.George were in the goals on Sunday against Penrith scoring five times with Billy Bulloch getting two of them.

Lowly Belmore, who during the week, signed Newcastle player Paul Kirwin on loan scored a surprise victory over the young Sydney City side.

The led 3-0 at one time before City pulled two back and then ran out of time.

Marconi continued their recent good form beating the fancied Polonia who, without Andy Budini (serving a one-match suspension) didn't score a goal.

Paul Scheinflug, Denis Colusso and John Kelly got a goal each.

Mike Johnson's Wollongong which has been goal shy in recent weeks turned their advantage into goals against Leichhardt scoring a handsome victory after being a goal down within four minutes.

Glen Fontana grabbed two of the goals.

Cash's can make the badge you'll wear with pride.

Woven, embroidered, printed, or iron on.
Small or large quantities at competitive prices.

Now you can show the sporting team you play with, or barrack for, or the special insignia that describes your club, hobby or leisure activity.

Cash's emblems are washable and drycleanable and are ideal for parkas, sporting uniforms, jumpers, track suits, scarves and caps. In fact anything you can wear or that can have a badge sewn or ironed on.

Depending on the quantity you or your club requires, you can have premium quality woven badges or for a personal requirement, we can make an economical printed or embroidered badge.

The higher the volume of your order, the cheaper the price. So if you think that a Cash's badge would be popular with your club or supporter group, pass on the idea to encourage numbers.

For a no obligation quote on your personal or club badge, sketch out an illustration and mark colours of the design on the planner grid. If possible send a copy of your club's emblem.

A free colour brochure is available on request illustrating examples of the badges we have made.

NSW STATE LEAGUE

CROATIA ARE ON COME-BACK TRAIL

— By Paul James —

Last week's results only confirmed what many people had said for a few weeks: Croatia are back in the premiership hunt.

Their convincing 5-1 destruction of Canterbury not only moved Croatia into sixth place but also moved them within striking range of a top four place.

This week the fighting North Sydney lads come up against Croatia.

After their fine 2-1 victory over Sutherland — which we predicted to the goal — Norths have moved further away from the bottom zone.

Croatia, their goal scoring knack revived seem certain to try and run up another good win.

With an exciting, elegant forward line of Kovacic, Culina and Kafka, Croatia are now once again a rightly feared team.

We predict two points for the champs in a 2-0 win.

A battered and bruised Melita will be licking their wounds this week after the game with Parramatta before taking on Inter Monaro at Garside Park.

Monaro gained a valuable point last week against Auburn, but they still lie perilously close to the relegation zone.

Melita should have too much class for the out-of-touch Monaro. We tip a comfortable 3-0 win for Melita.

Auburn entertain Olympic this week at Mona Park in a top of the table clash that could have an important effect on the competition.

Auburn failed to convert their superiority into goals against Monaro while Olympic overcame an early goal against Arncliffe to score an easy 3-1 win.

Olympic's back line still misses Kenny Wilson and at times looked uncertain against Arncliffe so Auburn's dangerous strikers could cause problems.

We tip an Olympic win 1-0.

Arncliffe looked one-paced against Olympic and will have to quicken their tempo to cause the attacking Avala any problems.

In recent weeks the Arncliffe forward line has been unable to make the most of their chances which they do create.

Avala look the more powerful all-round side of the two, and their attack should again score the goals for a win.

We predict a 2-1 Avala victory.

Sutherland's woes continue to mount from week to week, and this round doesn't promise to be any easier when they travel to Parklands to play Ku-ring-gai.

The North Shore lads gained a fine draw with Avala 3-3, and have moved into a middle order position.

It would not be a surprise to see Ku-ring-gai take both points from Sutherland, but we think a draw will be the result.

We tip 1-1.

Canterbury suffered a body blow last week when they were slaughtered 5-1 by Croatia.

This week they host Manly, the surprise winners against Bankstown.

Although Canterbury are in third place their faults were cruelly exposed last week and Manly, with their aggressive style of play, could once again cause an upset.

We tip a 2-2 draw.

The radar traps could have a field day out at Bankstown on Saturday after the Bankstown—Parramatta game.

At 4.45pm there should be a mass exodus of fans, players and officials from the Sports Centre to the Cricket ground to see the Australia—England game.

Bankstown's collapse has been one of the wonders of the season.

A useful side during the Ampol Cup, they showed glimpses of brilliance at the start of the season, but have progressively found new lows each week.

Parramatta have lost their once proud fighting ability and have slipped dramatically into the 13th place.

We tip 2-1 to Bankstown.

PARRAMATTA v MELITA 1-2(1-1)

Wayne Parker, making his debut in the Melita first team broke Parramatta City's hoodoo over his side by scoring the winning goal two minutes from the end to give Melita its first victory over Parramatta City for many years.

Melita took the lead in the 23rd minute when Don Allan eluded the defence to score following the corner.

However, Parramatta soon hit back when from a breakaway Bruce Waldron set up Nelson Brizuela with a fine pass to score with a 15-metre shot.

Melita forced two late corners and from one of these Farrugia tapped the ball to Wayne Parker who let fly with a high hard drive in the right hand corner well away from Donovan's outstretched hands.

PARRAMATTA: Donovan 4, Menzies 4, Fisher 3, Bales 3, Lackey 4, Brizuela 4, Jordan 3, Forwood 3, Hearn 2, Stephenson 2, Waldron 3 (Mitchell 72m, sent off).

MELITA: Greedy 3, Berry 4, McDonald 4, Mikas 4, W. Parker 4, Williams 3, (Farrugia 63m), Juchniewicz 3, Allan 4, Stoddart 4, Jones 3.

Goals: 0-1 Allan (23m), 1-1 Brizuela (36m), 1-2 Parker (88m).

Referee: W. Phelps; crowd: 1,947.

MONARO v AUBURN 1-1(1-1)

Auburn took the lead after 19 minutes when Quigley and Field set up a chance for Ross who made no mistake.

However, Monaro hit back only six minutes later when a Heywood freekick was slipped nicely between two defenders by Maoro Valeri for Ally Link to score.

Heywood and Link were the pick of Monaro's team, though Santolin was solid in the back, while Ross and Field were the dangermen for Auburn — ably supported by McDonald.

MONARO: Antonopoulos 3, Crawford 3, Pulcini 3, Noble 3, Santolin 4, Falzon 3, Pangalos 3, Valeri 2 (Shaw 59m), Heywood 4 (Sheridan 73m), Trajanoski 3, Link 4.

AUBURN: Gisbourne 3, McCoy 3, Bertram 3, (McKenndrick 81m), Dobson 3, McMillan 3, McDonald 5, Quigley 3, McCulloch 3 (McCrannor 46m), Ross 4, Field 4, Thearing 3.

Goals: 0-1 Ross (19m), 1-1 Link (25m).

Referee: D. Day; crowd: 650; caution: Trajanoski.

SUTHERLAND v NORTH SYDNEY 1-2(1-1)

North Sydney by no means played confidently but still managed to outgun a lamentably poor Sutherland side which lacked any punch up front.

Leyden scored a great 20-metre goal after taking the ball down on his chest and sending it past Haynes but Dal Forno replied for the Sharks with a goal after a strong run.

In the second half Tilsed made a superb save from a Smith header (shades of Banks v Pele) before Leyden nipped in between Haynes and a defender to steer his header inside the near post for the winner.

SUTHERLAND: Haynes 2, Holman 3, R. Schumann 3, Smith 3, Dal Forno 4, Tasker 3, (Watkiss 75m), Hesford 4, Meades 3, Bush 3, K. Schumann 3, Harrington 3.

NORTH SYDNEY: Tilsed 4, Walker 3, O'Rourke 3, Henratty 4, J. Bottalico 3, Leyden 4, Youssef 2 (Matheson 70m), Porter 2, A. Bottalico 3, Dale 2, Mitchell 3 (Wilson 46m).

Goals: 0-1 Leyden (18m), 1-1 Dal Forno (38m), 1-2 Leyden (60m).

Referee: K. Small; crowd: 501.

CROATIA v CANTERBURY 5-1(1-1)

Canterbury's midfield was gradually over-run by Croatia who took their time getting into the rhythm of the game.

Culina's goal just before the break was the turning point and in the second period Croatia were irresistible.

The win moved Croatia into sixth place — a dramatic improvement from the 12th position they held four weeks ago.

Canterbury were reduced to 10 men when Kable left the field with a dislocated shoulder in the 65th minute — after Canterbury had made both substitutes.

CROATIA: Watson 3, A. Kovacic 4, Vidiac 3, Basic 3, Cagalj 3, Culina 4, Coleman 4, Savor 3 (Gruicic 46m), M. Kovacic 4, Kafka 4, Pagano 3 (Sullivan 80m).

CANTERBURY: McPherson 3, Kable 3, G. Grown 2, Penman 3, Thomson 2, R. Brown 2 (Laws 46m), Williams 3, Basterfield 2, Hall 3, Byles 3, Thanmides 2 (Ramisch 60m).

Goals: 0-1 Hall (5m), 1-1 Culina (40m), 2-1 Kafka (pen.60m), 3-1 M. Kovacic (70m), 4-1 Culina (76m), 5-1 M. Kovacic (83m).

Referee: A. Boskovic; crowd: 3,500.

MANLY v BANKSTOWN 4-1(2-0)

A well deserved win for Manly who played the better soccer throughout the 90 minutes.

Vale opened the scoring in the eighth minute when he finished off a Firrell cross with a good 12-metre drive.

Manly went further ahead in the 42nd minute when Dudley Fox whipped in a 20-metre drive after a bout of sustained Manly pressure.

The halftime break failed to provide Bankstown with any answers to the confident Manly side and in the 63rd minute they went 3-0 down when Graham Firrell headed a Jack cross home.

In the dying minutes Bankstown hit back for a consolation goal, but Manly were determined to have the last say and from the kick-off Vale raced up the field, sent the ball to Jack and he steered it in past Lachowicz for the fourth.

MANLY: Dower 4, Wilson 3, Doyle 3, Riley 4, Moutlet 4, Jack 5, Townsend 3, Fox 4, Emery 88m), Stuart 3 Dick 78m), Vale 3, Firrell 4.

BANKSTOWN: Lachowicz 3, Lembryk 4, Brown 3 (Robertson 46m), Rootsey 4, Lynch 4, Peck 3, Williams 3, Tansley 3 (Beater 62m), Rea 3, Daley 3, Angelopoulos 3.

Goals: 1-0 Vale (8m), 2-0 Fox (42m), 3-0 Firrell (63m), 3-1 Beater (89m), 4-1 Jack (90m).

Referee: R. Lorenc; crowd: 250; cautions: Wilson, Daley.

SYDNEY OLYMPIC v ARNCLIFFE 3-1(3-1)

Arncliffe opened brightly, and scored after only nine minutes when Leak headed home Tracey's corner unchallenged.

Graham Jennings put Olympic on the road to victory with a classic left foot rocket on the run, firing the ball past a hapless Rogers.

Scott wasted a penalty in the 19th minute but Olympic nevertheless took the lead in the 31st minute when Eaton flicked home a Hensman shot.

Just to show he has a shot in both feet Jennings scored the third goal with his right foot, hammering an unstoppable 30-metre drive home.

OLYMPIC: Meier 3, Ankudinoff 3, Cross 3, McPherson 3, Rowden 3, Housseini 4, Hensman 4 (Zeros 86m), Laing 4, Scott 3, Eaton 4, Jennings 5.

ARNCLIFFE: Rogers 3, Ramisch 3, Wignall 2, Doyle 5, Luckett 2 (Blackburn 46m), Lee 3, Leak 2, Martin 3, Ainslie 3, Montgomery 4, Tracey 3.

Goals: 0-1 Leak (9m), 1-1 Jennings (15m), 2-1 Eaton (31m), 3-1 Jennings (39m).

Referee: B. Wilkinson; crowd: 1,560; caution: Doyle.

AVALA v KU-RING-GAI 3-3(2-2)

A thoroughly enjoyable match and possibly one of the best this year in the State League.

New Avala signing 'Bill' Czolnowski's goal was perhaps the most breathtaking: a 30-metre controlled volley that went like a rocket into the low corner of Taylor's net.

A minute earlier Smith had put Ku-ring-gai ahead with a neat goal, but Avala hit back through Czolnowski and Kodor in the 32nd minute. McGill made it 2-2 in the 38th minute before an amazing Bateman own goal in the 50th minute again gave Ku-ring-gai the lead.

This was short lived however, when Rodic snapped a goal home for the 3-3 draw.

AVALA: Ahrens 4, Bateman 2, (Rnjak 57m), Deller 3, Barton 4, Griffiths 4, Milne 4, Djurisic 3, Czolnowski 4, Tilt 4, Rodic 4, Kodor 4.

KU-RING-GAI: Taylor 4, Wheatley 4, Hogg 4, Hamilton 4, Chambers 3, Geekie 3, Vousden 4, Lavin 4, Herron 3, McGill 4, Smith 4.

Goals: 0-1 Smith (10m), 1-1 Czolnowski (11m), 2-1 Kodor (32m), 2-2 McGill (38m), 2-3 Bateman (o.g. 50m), 3-3 Rodic (66m).

Referee: G. Owen; crowd: 875; cautions: Bateman, Rnjak, Hamilton, Vousden.

East Bloc teams are Olympic favorites

The Olympic soccer tournament will start on July 20 and the final will be played on August 2, in Moscow.

FIFA has reshuffled the final field of 16, following the withdrawal of the USA, Egypt and Iran and has invited the teams which finished second in their respective elimination groups.

One spot — from the Central American zone — has yet to be filled.

These are the Olympic groups:

(A): USSR, Argentina, Zambia and Central American representative (X);

(B): Czechoslovakia, Colombia, Ghana, Kuwait;

(C): East Germany, Spain, Algir, Japan;

(D): Yugoslavia, Norway, Costa Rica, Iraq.

The match schedule is:

July 20. Moscow: USSR v Argentina; Leningrad: Zambia v X; Kiev: East Germany v Spain; Minsk: Algir v Japan.

July 21: Moscow: Ghana v Kuwait; Leningrad: Czechoslovakia v Colombia; Kiev: Costa Rica v Iraq; Minsk: Yugoslavia v Norway.

July 22: Moscow: USSR v Zambia; Leningrad: Argentina v X; Kiev: East Germany v Algir; Minsk: Spain v Japan.

July 23: Moscow: Colombia v Kuwait; Leningrad: Czechoslovakia v Ghana; Kiev: Norway v Iraq; Minsk: Yugoslavia v Costa Rica.

July 24: Moscow: USSR v X; Leningrad: Argentina v Zambia; Kiev: East Germany v Japan; Minsk: Spain v Algir.

July 25: Moscow: Colombia v Ghana; Leningrad: Czechoslovakia v Kuwait; Kiev: Norway v Costa Rica; Minsk: Yugoslavia v Iraq.

The top two teams from each group qualify for the quartertinals.

There the pairings will be: A1 v B2, A2 v B1, C1 v D2, C2 v D1.

The pairings in the semifinal will be: Winner of A1-B2 against winner of C1-D2; winner of B1-A2 against winner of D1-C2.

AT LAST, THE IRISH MAKE IT

Northern Ireland caused a major upset by winning the British Home International championship — for the first time since 1913-1914.

The Irish shared the title in 1956, 1958 and 1964 but this is their first outright win in 66 years.

They went through the series unbeaten: they downed Scotland and Wales 1-0 and drew 1-1 with England — at Wembley.

England finished second thanks to their 2-0 win in Glasgow last Saturday.

This is the first time since 1937 that the title, unshared, went outside the "Big Two", England and Scotland.

The last Irish upset against England was in 1972 when they defeated them 1-0 at Wembley.

For Australian fans, the Irish victory couldn't have come at a better time.

Next month Northern Ireland will play three internationals against Australia — and they come as the duly crowned British champions.

REFEREES FOR ITALY

UEFA in Bern has appointed the referees for the first round matches in the European Championship in June.

Czechoslovakia v West Germany: Michelotti (Italy); Holland v Greece: Prokop (East Germany); Belgium v England: Aldinger (West Germany); Spain v Italy: Palotai (Hungary); Greece v Czechoslovakia: Partridge (England); Belgium v Spain: Corver (Holland); England v Italy: Rainea (Rumania); Holland v Czechoslovakia: Ok (Turkey); Greece v West Germany: McGinlay (Scotland); Spain v England: Linemayr (Austria) and Italy v Belgium: Garrido (Portugal).

England reach '81 Coke finals

Manchester City's Steve MacKenzie discovered an unexpected goal flair to send England roaring into the semifinals of the UEFA Youth tournament in East Germany — and clinch a place in the Coca-Cola FIFA World Cup.

MacKenzie scored only two goals all last season in the football league with City, but the midfield player grabbed two fine goals against Yugoslavia at Altenberg to take England into the World Youth Cup for the first time.

England now join other group winners Italy, Holland and Poland as automatic qualifiers for next year's tournament in Australia.

Along go Spain and either Rumania or Portugal.

Spain are already certain of a place, but Rumania and Portugal finished with identical records and will toss for the sixth and final qualifying spot during the senior European championships in Rome next month.

England, though, were also sweating on their ticket to Australia until MacKenzie took a hand.

MacKenzie, who also scored against Portugal last Sunday, struck in the 17th and 46th minutes to give England a comfortable lead, said: "I was beginning to think I had lost my way to goal until this tournament started, but now just about everything I try ends up in the back of the net."

MacKenzie now seems sure to contest the honour of finishing as the tournment's leading scorer with Italy's Roberto Antelmi of Juventus.

Both players now have three goals, one behind West Germany's Thiele, who failed to score in his final game against Rumania.

Third round results: Group A: Spain 2 Hungary 0, Italy 1, Norway 1; Group B: Bulgaria 1 v France 7, East Germany 0 v Holland 0; Group C: Poland 3 v Finland 0, Rumania 1 v West Germany 0; Group D: Northern Ireland 0 v Portugal 1, England 2 v Yugoslavia 0.

OVERSEAS BRIEFS

• In a last minute switch, Hungarian international Laszlo Fazekas, 32, may transfer from Ujpest not to a Belgian club but to French champions Nantes.

□ □ □

• Some 40 Brazilian coaches are operating in foreign countries in the first division: the majority in Kuwait, Qatar and Saudi Arabia.

□ □ □

• Jimmy Hill, former Fulham star and Coventry manager, now ace TV commentator, has become Coventry's new president.

□ □ □

• Bob Paisley's record in five seasons as Liverpool manager: four championships and two European Cup wins...

□ □ □

• Aberdeen's young Scottish international, Steve Archibald is likely to join Tottenham for a fee of about $1,500,000.

□ □ □

• Although he's still on crutches after having broken his leg, Schalke's international striker Klaus Fischer has been the target of a transfer offer from Nurnberg, at $500,000.

□ □ □

• Roberto Bettega of Juventus was the top scorer in Italy's first division with 16, followed by Inter Milan's Altobelli on 15.

□ □ □

• Erwin van der Bergh, the Belgian Lierse club's striker, has been signed by Birmingham.

□ □ □

• West Germany beat Poland 3-1 in a friendly in Frankfurt with goals by Rummenigge, K. Allofs and Schuster; Boniek got the Polish goal.
